WHAT HAPPENED IN '75?

IT ALL STARTED IN THE SUMMER OF '74 . . .

ECHO* STAFF ORGANIZATION, BAND PRACTICES, FOOTBALL PRACTICES . . .

WELL, HERE, LOOK FOR YOURSELF . . .

THE '74 ECHOS ARRIVE

Ass't Ed. T. Jackson gets piled-up with the '74 books.

D. Rygle gives A. Kurincak her book while others wait their turn.

Him: "There you are." Her: "That's not me!"

K. Smalsky and D. Rygle take care of the distribution.

SUCH MEMORIES!

Ed. J. Quesada emphasizes a point to Mr. Brown.

S. Buday and Mr. Brown look over the up-coming program.

And who says that being the sponsor can't be fun too?

Always together, J. Quesada and S. Buday.

Helpful hints come from spectators.

Relaxing between dances is C. Nyland and B. Balint.

Even the teachers posed for pictures.

Must be a serious discussion at this table.

D. Leichliter and B. Matras find a moment of amusement.

J. Smith and D. Katusa seem to be enjoying themselves.

Exclaiming over pictures already taken are D. Vought and date.

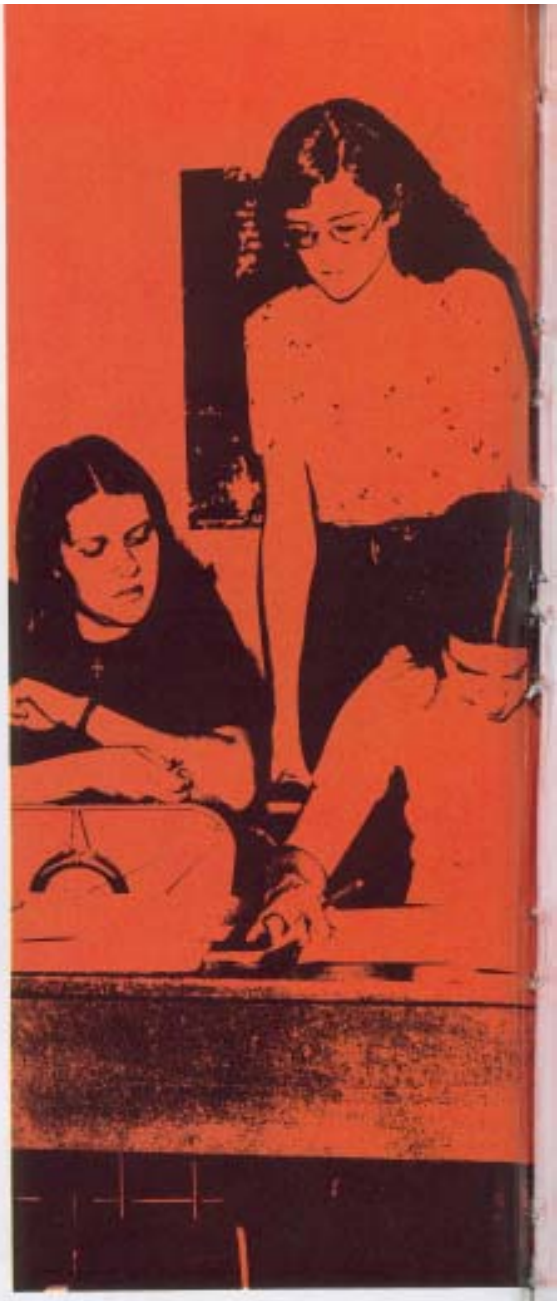
BRIDGET MC MILLEN MISS MERRY CHRISTMAS

THOSE WHO MADE IT !



Another year of seasons brings with it another graduating class. Along the way we, the seniors, have faced such things as classes, games, dances, teachers, and fellow classmates. Now we look back at our memories and realize that maybe it wasn't so bad after all. Our experiences, both happy and sad, were all worth it. And now it is our turn to pave yet another path for the seasons of next year.

Could these girls actually be studying?
